Record of a year gone by.
 A year filled with happy memories;
 The cons, the games, the many new faces,
 All must be stored away

A pattern for our dreaming;

 The elections with the signs and speeches,
 The work, the fun, the friendships;
 Each pattern lingers in our memory.

Along with all the advice that is given you at this time and along with everything else that is expected of you as graduates of this school, let me add one more suggestion.

Probably the highest accolade that this school could bestow on you would be to have it said of you that you are a lady or a gentleman, possessing to a marked degree the following characteristics — good sense, good manners, good morals, good humor, and good faith.

Dear Richard
No I haven't bowled
since the maillographia
and I don't even feel like bowling. I've been great seeing you improve
from a lousy bowler to a mediocre one. Lots of luck. Your friend
Tom Zornes

C L A S S E S

“ . . . but a wilderness of Tigers.”

(Titus Andronicus, Act III, sc. 1, line 54)

Shakespeare

Dear Rocky (Dick, Richard Rick, etc.)

How has it been going in world history. Aren't you the kid that worked 5,642 hours on that report on the world and only got a Don it? Yea, I think you're the kid who made
that beautiful, colored, detailed map of the world with every city on it. Only one problem, though - you forgot the United States!
You Idiot!!!

Well, how's it going with the great boulder who improved his average by 100 points, who is the World Champion Frog
Gigger, who doesn't know
how to ride a bike, who gives me dirty looks
when I pass him...

Just remember
though Richard, in the words of that great Philosopher, Confucious, "He who sits on tack is better off." I see

Sylvan - Sorry I had to call you that, but I couldn't resist the temptation.
Well, we both passed the Geometry Exam, a miracle. Best of luck in the years to come and have fun this summer.

Hi Nots,

As I began scribbling in this beautiful piece of paper, and I was making alot of mistakes, an old French proverb came to mind:

"Ouvrez mouche ou vous a la face de un grand merdieu."

which means:

"If you can't beat them join the underground."

Best of luck

and see you in S.F.

Boy, what a column. If I had that much wit, I would do the same thing, but if it was me, you would get indigestion. I don't know what to think of him (or you) but the fun I ~~am~~ had at the bowling alley with you guys is hard to beat. Hope we can do the same next year. Best of luck to a swell guy!

Lewis and Clark's football squad landed a city league fifth place in the 1960 action. Four starting players were out on injuries early in the season and the weakened eleven suffered defeat after defeat on a rain-drenched stadium field. But back on the home field the fighting Tigers made a rousing comeback by fiercely trouncing the valley teams and closing the season by tying the high-ranked Shadle Park Highlanders.

Sophomore fullback Wally Gaskins took two city league records — for yards gained in a single game and yards rushed in the season — giving LC promise of a winning team next year.

P.S. 2087 for saying

Made up almost entirely of sophomores and juniors, the boys' golf team made another fine showing in city play.

The varsity basketball team, plagued by inexperience and poor shooting, finished the season in the city league cellar. Hustling Terry Jacoy, however, kept up his spark even in the face of defeat. High point man for the season, Terry led the Tiger five to one league victory.

Sophomores and juniors made a fine showing, promising LC a return next year to their winning ways. Those expected to lead the team are sophomores Tim Goss and Tom Lorentzen. All juniors, Jim Haberman, Tom Swanson, Bill Self, and Galen Mills, also will figure greatly in next season's contests.
